Recognizing that quality is the University's primary responsibility, the PUP QAC strives to nurture a culture of quality through the development, implementation, monitoring and review of quality assurance-related policies, procedures and projects to meet institutional, national, and international standards. It also conducts periodic review of curricular offerings, ensuring that academic programs remain responsive to stakeholders and societal needs. Acknowledging that quality assurance is a holistic, participatory and collaborative process, the Center functions under the direct supervision of the Vice President for Academic Affairs and works closely with Colleges, Branches, Campuses and non-academic offices of the University. The College and the Department takes part in the Quality Assurance Processes of the Department, College, and the University through the participation on the different	100%	Quality Assurance Center Profile Matrix Quality Assurance Center Plan 2020-2024 PUP Quality Assurance Mechanism for Well-defined process Quality Assurance Center Must-do Program 2020-2024 Monitoring of COPC Issuance Accreditation Monitoring 2020-2025 Special Order of Quality Assurance Coordinator CSSD Action Plan CSSD Planning Process
